A convenient parking option is to park at Central Library just across the street from the Paul Hastings Tower. If you arrive after 4pm and leave before 8pm, then parking is just $1 with validation by showing your LAPL library card. Make sure to validate the parking ticket when you arrive! In order to find more information about location and parking rates, go to www.lapl.org/central/parking.html. Note that the best parking rates are with validation with an LAPL library card. If you do not have a library card, it only takes a few moments to get one. Validation is done at the information desk on the first floor.

Taking the Dash Bus:

The Education offices of the Music Center are accessible by various DASH bus lines such as the A, B and F DASH lines. The DASH bus is 25 cents each way. You can consult www.metro.net to find other public transportation options.

Entering the building:

At 515 S. Flower, Paul Hastings Tower, enter the lobby and go to the security desk. Mention you are visiting the Music Center on the 45th Floor. They will have your name but you will need to show a photo ID to get checked in. Then they will help you to the elevator to the 45th floor. From there, just follow the signs.
